Amendments

In the said rules-

1. in rule 2(1), after the words "Corporation of Madras", the words "or panchayats" shall be inserted;

2. for rule 3, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"3. Before transferring a member of the Public Health Establishment of one local authority to the Public Health Establishment of another local authority, the Director of Public Health shall consult in writing the executive authorities concerned if the transfer is from a municipality to another municipality or a district board or from a district board to another district board or a municipality.

Whenever the recommendations of any executive authority are not accepted, the Director of Public Health shall record his reasons therefor and communicate a copy of such record to the executive authority:

Provided that if, within 14 days from the date of such consultation no recommendation are received by the Director of Public Health from the executive authorities consulted, the Director of Public Health may give effect to the transfer.".
